

Y11 Applied Criminology Bridging Unit.

Your task is to investigate the following Campaigns for Change and answer the tasks.

- Sarah's law
- Claire's law
- Ann Ming's campaign- double jeopardy
- Bobby Turnbull's campaign- gun licensing
- Snowdrop campaign- anti-gun laws
- Jack's Law
- Cliff Richards anonymity campaign
- April Jones campaign.

Task 1: Produce a 1/2 page word processed factsheet (size 12 font) on each of the campaigns that cover the following

- What caused the campaign in the first place?
- Campaign for change in what? Change in law/awareness/attitudes/funding/policy.
- How did they campaign- what methods did they use? Newspapers, social media, tv etc. Was the campaign local or national?
- Who were the main campaigners? Family, celebrities?
- How successful they were- you need evidence (e.g. statistics of money raised). Did they result in a change in law/awareness/attitudes/funding/policy?
- Have the campaigns continued?

Task 2: Produce a 2-sided Compare and contrast the campaigns for change on the above points.

Task 3: Look at Official Crime statistics for UK using the links and other research, to find out:

- What types of crimes most to least likely committed?
- Who the typical perpetrator is?
- <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/crime-statistics>
- <https://www.ons.gov.uk/peoplepopulationandcommunity/crimeandjustice/bulletins/crimeinenglandandwales/yearendingseptember2019>

Also research where:

- Abortion.
- Domestic violence.
- Honour crimes.
- Homosexuality
- Capital punishment
- Where child brides are legal and illegal and include reasons why.
